Newbury and District Organists' Association, (NDOA), founded in 1980, aims to encourage interest in organ music amongst players and all enthusiasts. A recital is given by visiting organists, from the local area and further afield, at St Nicolas Church, Newbury, on the second Thursday of each month, except May. Playing visits are made to other organs and enthusiasts are welcome at these events too.

CHRISTINE WELLS

Christine Wells entered the Royal Academy of Music at the age of 16 principally to study cello with Douglas Cameron. After two years of not practising the piano as a second study she switched to organ, studying with Douglas Hawkrige. Such was her enthusiasm for this instrument that she soon obtained the ARCO and FRCO diplomas as well as diplomas in cello.

She later took an external B.Mus degree at Durham University and continued organ studies with Harold Darke at St. Michael's, Cornhill, City of London. Christine was appointed organist (now Director of Music) at St. Mary the Virgin, Hambleden, near Henley-on-Thames, at the age of 20 - a post she has held ever since.

As a cellist she has given solo recitals and taken part in chamber music concerts throughout the country and taught in local schools. As an organist she has given many recitals; she is a past President of the Berkshire Organists' Association and now Programme Secretary.

The year 2013 was one to remember. She received Maundy Money from the Queen at Christ Church, Oxford in March and was awarded a BEM in the Queen's Birthday Honours in June for 'Services to music and the community—Hambleden, Buckinghamshire'.
