

Dear NDOA member,

A Happy Easter to you all!

There are a number of recitals taking place locally in April which are listed below.

Lambourn's Good Friday Concert takes place tomorrow evening. Please see attached flyer for details.

As part of the Newbury Spring Festival, there is a Come and Sing Evensong at St. John's on 18th May. Singers should register in advance through the Festival box office.

The RCO has launched a new podcast dedicated to the world of the organ, organists and organ music. Published fortnightly, it can be accessed by visiting theorganpodcast.buzzsprout.com.

Recitals

Tuesday 2 April, 8pm - St. Lawrence Church, Alton.

Recital by Gerard Brooks (Westminster Central Hall).

Refreshments available from 7.30pm. Admission £10, or season membership ticket £60.

Concessionary rates for students. <https://altonorgansociety.co.uk>

Saturday 6 April, 3.00pm - St. Mary's, Shaw-cum-Donnington

Recital by Steve Bowey in aid of St. Mary's organ fund.

Admission free. Retiring collection. Refreshments will be served afterwards.

Thursday 11 April, 1.10pm - St. Nicolas Church, Newbury.

Lunchtime recital by Christopher Sears (St. John the Evangelist, Newbury).

Admission free. Retiring collection.

Wednesday 17 April, 12.00pm - Oxford Town Hall

Recital by Rosemary Evans.

Tickets £6.50 available at the door - cash only.

Saturday 27 April, 6.30pm - Winchester Cathedral

Recital by the renowned French organist Olivier Latry to mark the organ's restoration. Tickets can be purchased via the Cathedral website: <https://www.winchester-cathedral.org.uk/event/organ-concert-olivier-latry/>

If you are buying tickets and would be interested in meeting up beforehand or share transport, please contact me.

Best wishes,

Christopher