Newbury & District Organists' Association, (NDOA), founded in 1980, aims to encourage interest in organ music amongst players and all enthusiasts. A recital is given by visiting organists, from the local area and further afield, at St. Nicolas Church, Newbury, on the second Thursday of each month, except May and in December when it is held at Newbury Methodist Church. Playing visits are made to other organs and enthusiasts are welcome at these events too.

A merry Christmas and a peaceful and healthy New Year to you all.

We look forward to seeing you again for John Halsey's recital on January 9th 2025 at St Nicolas, Newbury.

CLIVE GRANT

Clive Grant studied organ with Alan Wicks at Canterbury Cathedral, and as an undergraduate, was Organ Scholar at the University Church of Great St. Mary's, Cambridge, studying with Peter Hurford and Gerald Gifford. After graduating he continued his postgraduate studies at Cambridge, focusing on organ, harpsichord and piano accompaniment, attending masterclasses in London and Paris. He has given recitals in various Cambridge Colleges, London, Exeter, Chichester and Llandaff Cathedrals, as well as in venues across Europe, including Belgium, Germany, Czech Republic, Italy and France.

For many years he was Head of Music and Expressive Arts at St. Bartholomew's School, Newbury, and is now a part time Associate lecturer in Music Education at Reading University, examining on the BAEd programme, MA and doctoral research programmes. In 2006 he was elected a Fellow of the Royal Society of Arts.

He lives in Somerset with his wife Melanie, and they split their time between their homes in the UK and France.
