Newbury and District Organists' Association, (NDOA), founded in 1980, aims to encourage interest in organ music amongst players and all enthusiasts. A recital is given by visiting organists, from the local area and further afield, at St Nicolas Church, Newbury, on the second Thursday of each month, except May. Playing visits are made to other organs and enthusiasts are welcome at these events too.

STEPHEN HOLMES

Stephen Holmes started studying the organ with William Nutter at Rochdale Parish Church at the age of 14. His first appointment as organist was at St. Peter's Church, Newbold. In 1968 he went up to Brasenose College, Oxford to read Engineering Science. For many years he sang with Oxford Bach Choir and the Oxford Harmonic Society. In 1975 he was awarded a D.Phil. for his research into the electron microscopy of metallic defects. In 1979 he left Oxford to pursue a career writing computer systems software and moved to Bracknell. From 1980 to 1983 he was the organist of All Souls' Church, South Ascot. During this time he sang with the Reading Bach Choir. In 1987 he moved to Lambourn and in 1993 was appointed organist of St. Michael and All Angels' Church. In 1994 he started the tradition of conducting a choral concert by the augmented church choir every Good Friday. For many years, Stephen also sang and performed with Newbury Chamber Choir.
